Dear Mrs. Chapman,

After an interval so long that I am really ashamed of it, I got your notes into the mail yesterday, and they should arrive in due course. Things outside the heavy routine of my teaching get attention in a very hit and miss fashion. Please excuse my tardiness.

As I can give you the Thomas Land battle in through some old volumes of Edgecombe records but got no help from them. The date of their baptism fits our problem of the Richards. I found that many of or people went to Edgecombe county; Pope and Exum, to take names from my notes spread open before me.

I have been trying to locate various places and place names occurring in the early baptismal records to place the land. Warrasqueak Bay seems to stand for present

Burnell Bay and New Town Staru River for Chuckatuck Creek. I can't place Castle's Creek, Hutchinsons Creek or Goose Hill Creek. Settlements on Black water began earlier than I suspected.

Cordially yours,

Rupert Taylor

See page 388, by Dr. Owen book 1746-52, bond of Will Stacey and Joseph Stacey <sup>1746, 1752-3</sup> to Richard Thomas to perform covenant. I do not know meaning of the 1747-8 and which may show the covenant. If there were an earlier bond I did not catch it. The bond might be in Brunswick Co. the bond might be to the son to perform covenant to the father who died in Southampton Co. Perhaps the bond still exists among the old papers on top of the stacks (I was filled with these) in the Clerk's Office - This land seems to have joined a tract Richard (R) Thomas bought of Sharnock in 1748 and gave to his son John in 1756

Note (1) In Surrey County 1682, Daniel Thompson, as marrying Mary, only daughter of Major William Marriott, died to Thomas Mather(?)

- (2) Daniel Thompson is m. 1821 named among other relatives niece Elizabeth Thompson. Most likely she was the m. 1807 of William Thompson who died 1820 leaving wife Elizabeth and some John and William estate. No other Elizabeth is that Thompson live on that date.
- (3) Could Elizabeth m. 1807 of John in 1698 for married Thomas Brown and later John Lee? Mrs. Daniels note that Thomas Brown was unmarried in 1696.

Dear Mrs. Chapman,

My long delay in acknowledging the receipt of your last letter and the note that came separately is due to the fact that they arrived just before midyear examinations which kept me busy until February 6 and that since that time I have had little consecutive time for study of the note and working with my own.

First for your Lambert line. I looked through a few family histories in our library but found no reference to that line. I then used the index to the first 12 or 16 (all we have here) volumes of the S.C. Historical and Genealogical Magazine, and found (vol. 10, p. 11) that according to Abstract of Court of Ordinary, Benjamin Lambert was an appraiser of the estate of William North, Sept. 17, 1697, - and (vol. 12, p. 137) that in 1736 Richard Lambert married Mary Crastley(?) at the Independent Church. Richard and Benjamin do not seem Huguenot first names. So perhaps Mr. Saller is right. The Lamberts may have married into Huguenot families, however, and thus give rise to the Moore tradition.

I am enclosing some tentative charts of the various Thomas families.

As to the William Thomas to whom Silvester Skid gave a lease in 1701, notice that it is called an agreement based on "valuable consideration already received in hand" and that the lease runs for his life. He was living on that tract when she made her will on Dec. 17, 1706, the first item of which gives to "loving friend Mary the wife of Henry Baker the land I dwell on known by the name of ye Rocks, all the rest of my land within that tract of land (that is to say) that plantation Andrew Griffon, Sarah Grifford, John Bidgood, William Thomas and Benjamin — now dwell on, the whole containing 550a — — — — — and after her decease, I give and bequeath to my God-daughter Mary, the daughter of Henry and Mary Baker — — — — —"

I have note Grant Book 2-81 (or 86) that Baker sold this land to Foster on 1717 & Page 92 that Foster sold it to Thomas Skid I may be mistaken in the ground. Perhaps the deeds will show whether William Thomas was living then or not.
Who was this William Thomas and why did Silvester Skid give him the lease? My mind goes back to the will of John Jennings in December 1695 in which he mentions sister Sarah Luck, brother William Thomas son George Jennings and mother Sieratta Hill and name as executor Sieratta Hill and my brother William Thomas. Mother Sieratta Hill was the mother of his deceased wife Mary. Was William Thomas a half-brother, the husband of a sister, or the husband of one of Madame Hill's daughters? Was the lease a statement of joint executor-ship? I have no notes on John Jennings's family at all but I have the recollection that his son George died as a child.

Apparently also Madame Hill outlined all her descendants, for she named none in her will and left all her land outside town her sister's descendants. Martha Throppe one of the witnesses to the deed was a witness & mill of John Jennings. William Thomas in 1702 appraised Peter Fitch whose property lay near to Madame Hill's property. Fitch had married Isaac Fenn.
Apparently the same William Thomas witnessed Parson &
Kee in 1703 and appraised Isaac and Shelton's estate in 1704.
He might be the same William Thomas who witnessed Richard Gledhill's will in 1714. <sup>(The W. identifies him with the one who might be Jacques met in N.C.)</sup> Gledhill was apparently the widower of Mary already the widow of James Day in 1700 and of John Johnson in 1707 or 1709. The land Madame Hill leased to William Thomas touched the Day land.

As to the deed of Nov. 6, 1719 from John Thomas of the Up. Parish, Gent. to Thomas Day, I do not think this the land given by Mrs. Hill. This Thomas Day must be to his nephew Thomas Day who when he died left a peak of it as a codicil to his will, See Will 6. 12. It was on Wakefields Run. As I was not much interested in the latter days I did not take full note but my recollection is that the first Thomas Day bought land from some one else before he bought of John Thomas. The Wakefields Run makes me suspect it was part of patent to John Sherwin and John Wakefield in 1668 or land they bought from Bell in 1665 and divided in 1674. Both pieces of land apparently were south of Blackwater and one joined John Clark, Henry Cook and part was sold by Robert Sherwin, grandson of John, in 1743 to Richard Thomas. This John Thomas brother of Upper Parish was not the same as our John Thomas of Lower Parish who died in 1725. I don't know who he was, but the reference to dividing line made by jury between him and Philip Whedon and wife Sarah, since you say Sarah was a Jennings makes me wonder if Sarah Whedon is not the Sarah sister of John Jennings mill and John Thomas a son of brother William Thomas - and with Sarah Whedon joint heir of Jennings. I have no notes at all to prove or disprove this suspicion.

 The history of the land, if traced might help.

Whom became of William the son of Philip Thomas who left him only money in his will and all the rest of his property to son John?
I could not find that Philip Thomas owned any land. He may have been the Wm Thomas who in 1684 appraised estate of John Mason along with Robert Stas and John Brantley but that was because of association I have, perhaps mistakenly identified with the William Thomas who had dealings with Jennings and Madam Still. Edward Goudson died in 1722 and John Thomas in 1725. Perhaps the William who died in 1728 was the son of Philip. ~~He may have been the William Thomas, Taylor, who~~ ~~bought land from Joseph Franco.~~ The William Thomas who died to wife Grace in 1688 by his initials W seems to be the one who bought of Jasper and went to N.C. The William who died in 1741 leaving sons Richard and Samuel seems to me related to the Philip Thomas line because of their very names.
I first put him down as the son of Philip until I found that Samuel was so young. Born out in Southampton in 1751.
Apparently this Samuel was the son of William Thomas, tailor, who bought of Franco in 1740. Samuel Thomas of N.C. in 1758 sold the Franco lands.

My guess may be only more confusing. If the imputed guesses are wrong, however, they may lead somewhere.
May I keep your notes a little longer? Thanks for them

Cordially yours,

Rupert Taylor

My dear Mrs. Chapman,

The enclosed sheets should have been contained in my last letter to you as containing miscellaneous items that may help in checking up on the Thomas land.

They got separated from the others and came to light after my letter was written.

A note came from Miss Georgia Day graciously expressing her pleasure of hearing about a kinman and asking how I am related to the Day family. She spoke of having visited the city library and of being disappointed in finding as few English wills.

In my last letter I failed to say that it would give me great pleasure to look for your S.C. line. Our library has little material save the S.C. Historical and Genealogical magazine. If I cannot find it, I can perhaps learn by inquiry some one in the state who may be able to help.

Cordially yours,

Rupert Taylor

--- The line is recorded down to one

In the list of wills at Bristol published by the British Records Society are named the wills of John Day (1615), Thomas (1645), Sibill (1672), Mary 1679, William Day 1717, John 1714. An abstract of the will of Thomas Bland, of London, Gent., 26 Aug. 1674 names his dau. Sarah Day, the wife of Joseph Day and grandson Joseph Day.
